⁸

In February 2003, the Commission presented an ambitious Simplification Programme (COM(2003) 71) designed to simplify and up-date the content of existing EU legislation, and reduce its volume. This initiative resulted in a rolling programme for simplification which has been updated by the Commission on regular basis. Some of the initiatives listed in the present annex implement this simplification programme. It should be recalled also that the Council endorsed in November 2004 a list of priorities for simplification based on suggestions from Member States and invited the Commission to take any appropriate action. The Council list of proposals include the following items: Plant protection products; Annual accounts; Twelfth company law directive; Waste oils; Waste directive; Hazardous waste; Incineration of waste; Food labelling; International vs. EU motor vehicles rules; Construction products; Medical devices; Pressure vessels; Health and safety at work; Structural business statistics. The present work programme for 2005 already contains the Commission's response on some of Council's priorities and it should be noted that the pursuit of Council's simplification priorities do not always require legislative initiatives from the Commission.
